

FOUR-CORNERED PRIMARY FIGHT IN GEORGIA TODAY

Smith, Dorsey, Watson and Cooper in Battle for Senatorial Toga.

LEGION WAITS ON "TWO TOMS"

Former Service Men Waging Hot
Fight Against Election of Men
Aligned Against President's War
Policies During World Crisis.

ATLANTA, Sept. 7.—One of the hardest fought political campaigns in Georgia's history came to a close tonight with four men seeking the Democratic nomination to the United States Senate in tomorrow's primary election. The four men are the gubernatorial nominee and scores of others contesting for other State offices, as well as eight congressional races, a United States Senator Hoke Smith, a candidate for re-election is opposed by Governor Hoke Smith, Thomas H. Watson, publisher and author, and John R. Cooper, Macon attorney.

Candidates for Governor are: W. R. Brown, Atlanta attorney; former United States Senator Thomas H. Watson; H. G. Dorsey, Thomas; W. H. Hardwick, "Old" Walker, former State Attorney-General, and John N. Holder, former Speaker of the Georgia House.

The races for nominations to Congress, for the Legislature and for various State offices in which the Democratic Party is regarded as equivalent to election, have been warmly fought, but chief interest in the campaign is centered in the gubernatorial and senatorial contests.

Senator Smith and Governor Dorsey are leading factions in Georgia politics that have been more or less definitely aligned against each other for years. While Watson, long a force in Georgia affairs, is now seeking office for himself, Cooper, a well-known South Georgia lawyer, has a "weak" rank in his party.

Legion Against "Two Toms"

Interest in the campaign has been heightened by the stand taken against Watson and Hardwick by various American Legion posts which have attacked their war records. These posts have announced they are not supporting an individual who is fighting the "Two Toms" as this campaign has termed them. Supporters of both men have announced that numbers of former service men are backing them.

Watson will not take part in the primary under a ruling of the subcommittee of the State Democratic Party which has announced that any individual who will attempt to vote tomorrow has not been announced.

COX'S SPOKESMAN REVEALS LIST OF THE 'MOPPERS UP'

The national Republican fund being given as $200,000, and Iowa's as $12,000. Mr. McNider said that on his own initiative he set the Iowa goal at $200,000, believing that the figure asked by the national committee was too low to cover the state, congressional district and national ticket needs in his State. He said $52,000 had been raised.

Mr. Moore told the committee he thought this testimony tended to support the Democratic charges that the $200,000 budget of the Republican National Committee was only a small part of the total that the party proposed to raise.

Mr. Paxton's testimony was to the effect that he had raised $1,255 from forty-one contributors, and that James M. Saunders had raised $2,319 more in the county. When he said that was all he had to offer, Senator Kenyon indicated he had been subpoenaed at the request of Democratic members of the committee, and thought requiring a journey of 550 miles for such testimony was "rank injustice."

"Well, I don't think so at all," interposed Senator Reed. "If we cannot get the truth here by wholesale we will get it by retail."

"Well, you certainly are not going to bring in every county chairman in the country," replied Senator Kenyon.

Enter "Form 101."
"Did Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, say to you in substance just before you took the stand that you never got 'Form 101' because it was never sent out?"

The witness said Mr. Upham asked him if he had received it and when Mr. McNider replied in the negative the treasurer rejoined: "I guess not."

The testimony of the State chairman and Mr. Paxton also developed that considerable amount of the work of raising the campaign fund was done by salaried "State directors" from Republican headquarters. W. A. Kling, of California, was named as agent for Illinois and Missouri, and Charles Mavity as the field agent for West Virginia and later for Iowa, after Irving Woodward had "quit" because of a disagreement with Republican headquarters.

Cox's Quota List Not Phony.
Mr. Moore was the first and also the last witness of the day. When he resumed the stand in the afternoon he said:

"Much of my information will be useless and the whole investigation will be also, if the committee thinks Governor Cox's charges are groundless. The method and plan of the Republican drive for funds, I think the plan of spreading out the work over the country is excellent, but if there is being raised a fund that is $100,000 out of $200,000, the work of the Republican National Committee itself thinks is sufficient, you will agree with me that it would be a thing for America, no matter how it is raised."

"I will all agree on that," said Senator Kenyon.

The witness and chairman then agreed that the published list announced by Governor Cox in his Pittsburgh speech, was a correct duplication of the quota sheet from which he read on that occasion, and that it would not be necessary to put the Governor's copy in evidence.

It will be remembered that Treasurer Upham denounced this list as "phony."

Taking up the list, Mr. Moore said Pittsburg's quota was given as $400,000.

"H. C. McDowell, president of the Union Trust Company, can give you the information that this is the quota and also tell you how much has been raised," he said. He also said that W. A. Woodford and Dudley S. Bloomer, of Cleveland, could tell about that city's quota of $100,000, and that Edmund Silverbrand, of Chicago, could tell about the Youngstown district, that had waived a sheet of checks before a hotel clerk there and exclaimed:

"This is the way to get the money."

American Heroes Rest in Arlington

"Money digger was Bert Fuller, whom he described as a 'poor old friend of Will Hays.'" He said Fuller had also worked in Alabama and North Carolina.

Skipping to the State of Washington, Moore repeated that Governor Cox's charge that the Spokane was $100,000 and the Spokane was $100,000, and the Spokane was $100,000, and the Spokane was $100,000.

This led to the discussion of Mr. Moore's allegations caused Chairman Kenyon to remark that the committee could not be "expected to believe anything that is not substantiated by evidence." Moore asked Kenyon to state that the committee could not be "expected to believe anything that is not substantiated by evidence."

Moore next offered the circular letter which he said was "a document which was not substantiated by evidence." Moore asked Kenyon to state that the committee could not be "expected to believe anything that is not substantiated by evidence."

EFFECT OF COAL STRIKE UNKNOWN FOR 24 HOURS

Several Operators Enter Agreement
With Mine Workers—Governor's Commission in Conference.

(By Associated Press.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 7.—Although the general strike call issued by officials of District 20, United Mine Workers of America, went into effect at midnight tonight, twenty-four hours are expected to elapse before it will be definitely known to what extent the miners' riot will be ready on strike will heed the order. Over fifty small mines and some larger ones, including those of the Alabama Company, are not affected. The operators previously entered into contract with the union's approval. These contracts, the union men say, will be kept inviolate, but are subject to further arbitration and to being brought up to the terms that the strike imposed hereafter in case of a win. Union officials claim there is a clear understanding with the operators, with whom these contracts were entered into as to this hearing.

Judge James J. Mayfield and former Governor Charles Henderson, two members of the commission named by the governor to investigate the strike, arrived in Birmingham today and secured rooms at the Tutwiler Hotel. They are expected to meet and hold formal day after day.

Terences with men on both sides of the controversy. This afternoon they gave much time to a conference with President Kennamer and W. L. Harrison, mine operator, hearing the union's side of the case.

Dr. George H. Denny, president of the State university and chair member of the commission, will arrive in Birmingham tomorrow, and the commission will then sit as a whole.

HARDING LEAVES 'FRONT PORCH' FOR FIRST TIME

Conference Between Senator and General Wood in Chicago—Leaves for St. Paul.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, stopped in Chicago several hours today on his first campaign trip outside of Ohio, and quietly left for St. Paul, Minn., where he was one of his leading opponents for the nomination.

King and His Mother at Odds Over Ground Rents

(By Universal Service.)

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A dispute has arisen between King George and Queen Alexandra regarding letting which have been made by Her Majesty on the royal estate at Sandringham.

The Queen let a number of building plots on ninety-nine year leases at very low rents, but received fees in each case varying from $2,500 to $10,000. The King claims that, as Queen Alexandra is only tenant for life of the royal property, she cannot appropriate these sums herself.

The matter has been referred to the Home Secretary, who is supposed to settle any such dispute between the sovereign and any member of the royal family. This is the first occasion in seventy years that a dispute between two members of the royal family has been referred to the Home Secretary.

FORMER SENATOR CRANE SERIOUSLY ILL AT HOME

Collapsed at Northampton Exercises
Notifying Governor Coolidge of His Nomination.

(By Associated Press.)

DALTON, MASS., Sept. 7.—Announcement was made tonight that former United States Senator W. Murray Crane was seriously ill at his home here. For several days he has been confined to his bed, though it was stated at his home that his condition was not considered alarming.

Senator Crane suffered a collapse at Northampton when attending the exercises notifying Governor Coolidge of his nomination for Vice-President, but rallied quickly. He was forced, however, to curtail his activities, although he maintained a directing influence in Republican party campaign policies until four days ago. He is 67 years old.

NO MORE ARRESTS UNTIL JURY HEARS COAL FACTS

District Attorney Smith Busy With Contracts Between Ship and Coal Men.

(By Associated Press.)

A Federal grand jury will hear all evidence in District Attorney Hiram M. Smith's coal probe at the port cities before any further arrests are made, that official announced here yesterday. In Norfolk last week he caused the arrest of three members of one firm, Robert Haster & Co., on charges of profiteering and these men will be given a preliminary hearing September 11.

Mr. Smith's subordinates in every corner of the Eastern District are still busy on valuable leads uncovered as to the interchanging system of handling cars of coal between the mines and the bunkers at tidewater. Not until this phase of the inquiry has been further exhausted will attention be brought to bear on the price of fuel for domestic use, it is generally believed. Seizure of coal to remedy any particularly bad situations will be refrained from until the conditions permit of no other means of relief, states Mr. Smith. He personally is scrutinizing the many contracts that have been made by firms in the district to supply

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone"
Man, Responsible for Change for the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. The man who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.
